

Robert John Curnow, M.D.
3451 Box Elder Place
Wilson, WY 83014

Key Experience

- 1975-2010 Co-founder and Orthopedic Surgeon, Gem City Bone & Joint Clinic, Laramie, WY
- 1975-2010 Team Orthopedic Surgeon, University of Wyoming Athletics
- 1975-2005 Orthopedic Consultant to Wyoming High School Shrine Bowl
- 1977-1980 Team Physician, U.S. Alpine Ski Team
- 1978-2010 Adjunct Professor, Department of Physical Education, University of Wyoming
- 1979-2000 Orthopedic Consultant to Albany County School District

Education

- 1967-71 M.D. University of Missouri - Columbia
- 1963-67 B.S. William Jewell College

Internship

- 1971-72 Kansas City General Hospital, Kansas City, MO

Residency

- 1972-75 Orthopedic Surgery, University of Missouri - Columbia

Fellowship

- 1975-76 Indiana University, Indianapolis, IN

Research

- 1984 The Anterior Cruciate Ligament Arthroplasty, Journal of Bone and Joint Surgery
- 1988 Results of Acute Repair versus Delayed Repair of the ACL, unpublished

Certifications

- 1976 American Academy of Orthopedic Surgeons Fellow
- 1982 American Academy of Hand Surgery Fellow
- 1985 Western Orthopedic Association

Presentations

- Sponsored program through the University of Wyoming training room for education of high school trainers from Wyoming and Colorado.
- Multiple presentations to local and regional high schools concerning diagnosis and treatment of orthopedic and hand injuries.